Subject: Request to meet Minister

Dear Mr Stott

I understand that this afternoon you discussed your request to meet Minister O'Byrne with an adviser from the Premier's Office. However, I must reiterate that Minister O'Byrne is unable to meet with you.

I am sure that you are aware that regulation of forestry burns is the responsibility of the Forest Practices Authority. Complaints relating to forestry burns should be lodged with the FPA. If you wish to discuss your concerns about planned burns in the forest industry with a minister, I suggest that you contact the office of the relevant Minister, who in this case is Minister Llewellyn.

Yours sincerely

Brad Arkell
Adviser
