Dear Mr Stott

Freedom of Information review

In accordance with the findings of the Ombudsman's Freedom of Information Act 1991 Review, I enclose the information from 20 burn plans from the Mersey District for the 2008 season.

Certain information contained in these documents relating to the names and addresses of third parties has been excluded from the released documents as exempt under Section 30 of the Act:

S30. Information affecting personal privacy

- (1) Information is exempt information if its disclosure under the Act would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information relating to the personal affairs of a person.

The reason for this exemption is as follows:

The release of this information would disclose the names and addresses of individuals not related to Forestry Tasmania. To protect the privacy of these individuals, Forestry Tasmania has decided to exclude this information in its entirety.

Yours faithfully

Dr Hans Drielsma
