

15.12.2016 - Smoky low-intensity deliberate burn to protect the grapes.

If the government is going to splash money about to burn private land for these people (Forico, Tamar Valley Resort and the wine industry) then they should be able to splash some about to take my green waste to the local green waste station which in contrast will create no harmful smoke.